

Versant English Speaking and Listening Test

Test Completion Date (GMT)
5 June 2026

Test Identification Number (TIN)
74289691

Overall GSE Score

Candidates at this level speak and comprehend at conversational speed with a little effort and can interact on many subjects with rather fluent, elaborated, and structured speech; can use diverse grammatical structures and typical English expressions; speak with good pronunciation and intelligibility.

Versant English Speaking and Listening Test

Speaking

GSE: 76/90

CEFR: C1

Candidates at this level can clearly speak on a range of topics with fluent, elaborated, and well-structured speech; use diverse vocabulary, English expressions, and grammatical structures appropriately. Speech is fluent and intelligible, and candidates can interact in real time with ease and confidence.

💡 Tips to improve:

- Practice talking about a recent event and how it impacted you or other people.
- Practice giving detailed advice to a friend on an important decision they need to make (e.g. changing a course of study at university or leaving a secure job), discussing the advantages and disadvantages of each suggestion.

Speaking

The Speaking score reflects the ability to use English grammar and expressions accurately and appropriately in both constrained and more open-ended responses. Performance depends on clearly and accurately producing content and confidently presenting a view on a topic and giving reasons for it. Scores also reflect speaking with English pronunciation norms, conversational fluency, and in a way that proficient English speakers find understandable.

Manner of Speaking

GSE: 63/90

CEFR: B2

Candidates at this level can be understood with a little effort by listeners; pronounce most vowels and consonants understandably although accent tends to be influenced by another language; use appropriate stress and rhythm in general; express themselves with a relatively even tempo with few noticeably long pauses.

💡 Tips to improve:

- Let other people listen to your English speech and ask them to provide feedback on the flow of your speech.
- Find a passage you would like to practice. Listen to how a native speaker reads it and try to "shadow" that person by reading it aloud with the same rhythm.

Manner of Speaking

The Manner of Speaking score reflects the ability to speak in a way that proficient English speakers easily find understandable. Performance depends on pronouncing English sounds in ways that are close to typical norms without too much of an accent. It also reflects the ability to speak at a normal conversational pace, without too much hesitation or unusual pauses between words, phrases, or sentences.

Versant English Speaking and Listening Test

Listening

GSE: 69/90

CEFR: B2+

Candidates at this level can follow both short and extended speech with a range of vocabulary, at a conversational speed. Candidates' interactions demonstrate good understanding of main points and nuances of passages and conversations in everyday workplace situations.

💡 Tips to improve:

- Listen to a complex presentation on an unfamiliar topic and practice note-taking, focusing on unknown words.
- Listen to fast-paced conversations between fluent speakers in a meeting. Practice inferring meaning, opinion, and attitude from the speakers.

Listening

The Listening score reflects the ability to understand specific details and main ideas from everyday and workplace speech spoken at a conversational pace.

Understanding the Skills

Overall Score

The Overall score reflects the ability to consistently understand spoken English and speak it with good grammar, vocabulary, and delivery. Scores are based on a combination of Speaking and Listening scores.

GSE

The Global Scale of English (GSE) is the global standard for measuring English language proficiency in detail on a simple 10 to 90 scale. Learn more about the GSE at pearson.com/languages.